PERSPECTIVES IN BIOLOGY AND MEDICINE

VOLUME 29 · CONTENTS

1	Alex Comfort	On Physics and Biology: Getting Our Act Together
10	Judah Folkman	Toward an Understanding of Angiogenesis: Search and Discovery
37	Gabriel J. Escobar	The Genius of Friedrich Seigenthaler, M.D.
41	Louis B. Harrison, Melvin H. Worth, Jr., and Michael A. Carlucci	The Development of the Principles of Medical Malpractice in the United States
73	W. Gray Jerome and George Y. Lesher, editors	It Has Been Said
76	George T. Harrell	Osler's Professorships and His Families
88	Leonard Hersher	On the Development of Certain Species of Very Large Body Size by Linear-Dominance Mating Hierarchy
92	Newtol Press	Haber's Choice, Hobson's Choice, and Biological Warfare
109	Kim A. Eagle	Finding Humanism in Medicine
115	Judith R. Head and Rupert E. Billingham	Immunologically Privileged Sites in Transplantation Immunology and Oncology
132	R. A. Cleghorn	Eyewitness—Agents of Change in Medical Biology over Sixty Years
148	Scott F. Gilbert	Bacchus in the Laboratory: In Defense of Scientific Puns
153	Leslie L. Bennett	His Future Foretold—the 1904 Address by Herbert Evans
164	Arnold van den Hooff	Reflections on Pascal's Two Types of Esprit in the Light of Certain Current Insights into Brain Physiology
168		BOOK REVIEWS: Archetypes and Ancestors: Palaeontology in Victorian London 1850–1875, by Adrian Desmond; The Prevalence of Humbug and Other Essays, by Max Black
		Verses by Samuel Stearns, David A. Bennahum, Will H. Blackwell, Jr., and James O. Bond
175	Ernest Beutler	Planned Obsolescence in Humans and in Other Biosystems
180	D. Gale Johnson	A World Food System: Actuality or Promise?

199	Roger J. Williams and Donald R. Davis	Differential Nutrition—A New Orientation from Which to Approach the Problems of Human Nutrition
203	Alastair R. Michell	The Gut: The Unobtrusive Regulator of Sodium Balance
214	Harry B. Burke	Reflections of a Medical Student
219	Linda Hughey Holt	DRGs (Diagnostic Related Groups): The Doctors' Dilemma
227	Joseph B. Kirsner	The Changing Medical Scene (1929–1985): A Personal Perspective
244	Mary Kilbourne Matossian	Did Mycotoxins Play a Role in Bubonic Plague Epidemics?
257	M. Taher Mohiuddin, Leif Bohn, and Herbert E. Salzer, editors	It Has Been Said
260	Eli Chernin	Joseph Jones: Idiosyncratic Student of Malaria
272	Weiert Velle	A Biased View on Human Behaviour
278	Ernest B. Hook	James Watt Mavor (1883–1963): A Forgotten Discoverer of Radiation Effects on Heredity
292	Frederick Grinnell	Complementarity: An Approach to Understanding the Relationship between Science and Religion
302	J. van Noordwijk	The Balance of a Bioassayist
310	Frank C. Wilson	Creativity in Medicine—A Faculty Perspective
316	Michael L. Riordan	The Path to Public Office: Medicine versus Law
326		BOOK REVIEWS: Biochemical Adaptation, by Peter W. Hochachka and George N. Somero; Selective Nontreatment of Handicapped Newborns, by Robert Weir
		Verses by Samuel Stearns, David A. Bennahum, Jeffrey I. Cohen, Lawrence H. Climo, and Alan L. Mackay
331	John H. McMasters	Reflections of a Paleoaerodynamicist
385	William A. Silverman	Subversion as a Constructive Activity in Medicine
392	Howard A. Schneider	Rats, Fats, and History
407	Anthony P. Russell	Automobile Gerontology
413	Roger Sperry	The New Mentalist Paradigm and Ultimate Concern
423	E. Peter Volpe	Is Down Syndrome a Modern Disease?

437	Barton Childs and Charles R. Scriver	Age at Onset and Causes of Disease
461	William Etkin, Park J. White, and Lawrence L. Hirsch, editors	It Has Been Said
464	G. Gayle Stephens	Careers of Illness: Problems in the Diagnosis of Chronic Illness
475	Alan Copperman	The Wizard of Oz: An Analysis of the Evolution of Its Societal Parallels
478		BOOK REVIEWS: The Transforming Principle, by Maclyn McCarty; Modern Art and Modern Science: A Parallel Analysis of Vision, by Paul C. Vitz and Arnold B. Glimcher; The Extended Phenotype: The Gene as the Unit of Selection, by Richard Dawkins
485		LETTERS TO THE EDITOR: Charles R. Beittel, Jr., Samuel Stearns
		Verses by Macdonald Dick 11 and William Steiner
S1	Richard L. Landau	Editorial
S2	Gaetano Salvatore and Howard K. Schachman	Introduction
S4	John P. Burke	Historical Background
	I. INTERNATIONAL SCIENTIFIC COOPERATION: MECHANISMS AND TOOLS
S8	James B. Wyngaarden	The Evolving Role of Governmental and Private American Organizations in Support of International Cooperation in Biomedical Sciences
S21	Charles V. Kidd	International Mobility of Bioscientists: Trends and Perceptions, Country by Country
S34	David C. Evered	Current Policies and Research Organizations Relating to International Scientific Collaboration
	II. INTERNATIONAL SCIENTIFIC COOPERATION: CURRENT POLICIES
S38	J. Tooze	The Role of European Molecular Biology Organization (EMBO) and European Molecular Biology Conference (EMBC) in European Molecular Biology (1970–1983)
S47	Henry Danielsson	Collaboration and Mobility in Biomedical Research: Role of the European Medical Research Councils

S57	Fuminori Sakai	Collaborative Efforts in Science between Japan and Other Countries: Past, Present, and Future
S66	Max M. Burger	Mobility of Scientists: How Reliable Are the Available Data to Judge Trends?
S70	Bent Sørensen	Medical Research within the European Economic Communities

III. MAJOR RESEARCH INSTITUTES IN BIOMEDICAL SCIENCES

S73	Ephraim Katchalski-Katzir	From High-Molecular-Weight Protein Models to Enzyme Engineering: Research at the Weizmann Institute of Science
S87	Christian B. Anfinsen	The International Influence of the Carlsberg Laboratory on Protein Chemistry
S90	Joan A. Steitz	Shaping Research in Gene Expression: Role of the Cambridge Medical Research Council Laboratory of Molecular Biology
S96	Lennart Philipson	The European Molecular Biology Laboratory: An International Collaborative Effort

IV. DEVELOPMENT OF BIOCHEMISTRY AND BIOPHYSICS

S107	John T. Edsall	Understanding Blood and Hemoglobin: An Example of International Relations in Science
S124	D. C. Phillips	Development of Concepts of Protein Structure
S131	Julius Axelrod	Doing Research in the Intramural Program of the National Institutes of Health
S138	M. Brunori and J. Wyman	The Alpha-Helix Expedition in the Amazon: A Special Case for International Collaboration

V. THE CASE FOR GENETICS AND MOLECULAR BIOLOGY

S141	Georges N. Cohen	Four Decades of Franco-American Collaboration in Biochemistry and Molecular Biology
S149	Donald D. Brown	How Embryologists Became Developmental Biologists and Other Matters
S154	Peter Starlinger	No Research on Mobile Genetic Elements without Mobile Scientists

VI. INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION IN IMMUNOLOGY

S159	Elvin A. Kabat	A Tradition of International Cooperation in Immunology
S161	R. R. Porter	Antibody Structure and the Antibody Workshop 1958–1965
S166	G. J. V. Nossal	Turning Points in Cellular Immunology: The Skein Untangled through a Global Invisible College

S178	Baruj Benaceraff	The Glorious Days of Cellular Immunology: New York University Years and Beyond, an International Experience
	VII. INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION IN ENDOCRINOLOGY
S184	J. R. Tata	The Search for the Mechanism of Hormone Action
S205	John B. Stanbury	A Case Report on International Cooperation in the Study of Thyroid Disease
S214	A. E. Renold	Planned Integration of International Visiting Fellows and Scientists: Enhancement of Morale, Productivity, and Impact in a Laboratory Concerned with Human Diabetes and Its Animal Models
S218	Mario Andreoli	The Role and Significance of International Cooperation in the Biomedical Sciences: Endocrinology Research at the University of Rome
	VIII. PERSPECTIVES AND CONCLUSIONS
S222	Gaetano Salvatore, Howard K. Schachman, and Peter G. Condliffe
	IX. ACKNOWLEDGMENTS
S226	Gaetano Salvatore and Howard K. Schachman
	X. TRIBUTE
S228	Julian B. Fleischman	R. R. Porter, 1917–1985
489		EDITORIAL: A New Perspective for Biology: Its Central Role in the Liberal Arts Education of the Future
493	Don R. Swanson	New Horizons in Psychoanalysis: Treatment of Necrosistic Personality Disorders
499	Paul Pirlot	Understanding Taxa by Comparing Brains
510	Eve Van Cauter and Fred W. Turek	Depression: A Disorder of Timekeeping?
521	Jeremiah A. Barondess	The Impossible in Medicine
530	William A. Silverman and Thomas McKeown, editors	It Has Been Said
535	Herbert F. Janssen	A Modern Proposal for Aiding Our Country in Winning a Full-Scale Nuclear Conflict
539	Stephen R. Ell	Maestro Francesco da Roma: Portrait of a Renaissance Public Health Officer
545	T. P. Millar	Humor: The Triumph of Reason

560	Geoffrey E. Smith	Fluoride, the Environment, and Human Health
573	H. N. Christensen	Children's Stories and Adult Attitudes toward the Use of Animals in Biomedical Research and Testing
588	Lloyd A. Wells	Varieties of Imposture
611	Warren A. Sawyer	Frederick Banting's Misinterpretations of the Work of Ernest L. Scott as Found in Secondary Sources
619	Kathryn Montgomery Hunter	"There Was This One Guy . . .": The Uses of Anecdotes in Medicine
631		BOOK REVIEWS: Black Death, by Graham Twigg; The Captured Womb, by Ann Oakley; To Do No Harm: DES and the Dilemma of Modern Medicine, by Roberta Apfel and Susan M. Fisher
636		LETTERS TO THE EDITOR: Oscar D. Ratnoff, Joseph D. Sapira, Charles F. Levinthal Verses by Samuel Stearns, David A. Bennahum, M. J. Shively, Billy F. Andrews, Jacques Padawer, Ronald N. Turco
